2021 Staff Application

While the camp's philosophy is based on Quaker principles, we encourage applications from persons of any religion, race, culture or economic background. Camp Woodbrooke's counselors are enthusiastic about living in a small, close knit, diverse community where each person is valued and treated with dignity and respect. They are enthusiastic about working with children, are committed to living simply in harmony with nature. They design creative activities that help children know and love the out of doors. Camp Woodbrooke is a very small camp with at most 12 cabin counselors, 2 teen trip counselors and one or two more staff. Cabin counselors live in rustic, open-sided cabins with up to six campers and one other counselor or "helper."
